June 16th 2017: Fully Grounded in Presence

"The ground's generosity takes in our compost and grows beauty. Try to be more like the ground." ~ Rumi Where do you find yourself living most of the time? As you are currently experiencing the moments each day, do you remember them later when you think back to what and where you have been today? Is it mostly a digital world or full of unexplained reality illusions that do not feel quite right? The only place you can really live your life is on the physical plane. When you embrace an attitude of "Being Here Now", your moments each day will have a lot of meaning. Your body and your per
