We will be speaking with Patricia Rosen, the Publisher of Sober World Magazine. Patricia launched the Sober World Magazine in 2011 after her son Steven died from a prescription drug overdose. This tragedy led her to launch the magazine as a means of giving back to families who are suffering the perils of addiction. She wanted to provide a comprehensive resource that provides education about addiction and the resources that are available to aid in recovery. Her goal is to help eliminate the stigma associated with addiction, present quality resources, and to educate people on addiction and to t
