July 11th 2017: The Gig Economy: Why Companies Need to Value Employees for Ideas and Results

Oprah-reviewed author, Forbes Top-10 business school lecturer and author of The Gig Economy: The Complete Guide to Getting Better Work, talks about why companies need to value employees for their ideas and results, not time in the office and about her book. The Gig Economy transforms the way we work by disconnecting work from an office. Independent consultants, contractors, and freelancers are judged by their results and output – no matter how, where, or when they are produced - not on the time they spend in their office chair, or whether they work from 9 to 5 every day. 1. What exactly is the
