June 29th 2017: Cattle Ranching in the 21st century: Is there such a thing as Inner Revolutionary Cattle Ranching?

Today our guest is Bill Cordasco, President of Babbitt Ranches. Bill will share his experience and vision for the future as an environmental steward, and cattle rancher. Are these two passions congruent? How do you navigate the tough terrain? The values of Character, Nature and Community have guided Babbitt Ranches since its founding in 1886, a family owned business, Bill has 'steered' the company through environmental challenges and the economic reality of running a private ranch. Bill's passion to do the right thing is Inner Revolutionary. How do we stay connected to one another, in the face

Featured Guest

Bill Cordasco

Bill Cordasco is the President of Babbitt Ranches, and a fourth-generation member who manages the approximately 700,000 acre ranch that is partly privately deeded and partly leased land. This family owned cattle and horse ranch has been operating since 5 Babbitt brothers moved to northern Arizona in 1886. Headquartered in Flagstaff, Arizona, Babbitt Ranches are committed to developing fundamental programs and direction for Tomorrow's Agriculture and Land Use to explore land stewardship, business diversity, industry employment and infrastructure. Bill also oversees other family businesses and foundations that encourage a broad sense of self-imposed awareness and responsibility through educa
